By Yesterday Evening's Mails.

SOUTH -NASHVILLE, May 21. - The General Conference has been wholly occupied for the last three days in the investigation of complaints against the official administration of Bishop Early. These complaints come from a number of the Annual Conferences in which Bishop Early has presided during the last three or four years. They do not in any way involve the moral or christian character of the Bishop, but have exclusive reference to his official acts. The Committee on Episcopacy, before whom these complaints were odged, were not able, satisfactorily, to dispose of them, and preferred to refer them to the General Conference in committee of the whole, for final adjudication. Nothing, therefore, came before the Conference in the form of charge and specification, but simply in the way of complaint, that the Bi-hop had not given satisfiction in his acts and conduct, as an officer of the Church, in some six or eight of the Conferences in which he had presided. The Bishop occupied nearly two whole days in a calm, dignified review of the complaints, and succeeded, measurably, in satisfying the minds of a large number of the Conference that the acts complained of had very many extenuating circumstances connected with George Duffey, (A). 214 167 294 141 them. At the close of the Bishop's explana- P. C. Claughton, (Ind.) 94 41 104 tions the case carge fully into the hands of the Conference for action. Whereupon, a motion was made to pass the Bishop's character. This elicited a spirited debate; not be taken seriously into account-to pass his character, yet, by some it was thought that the resolution to pass his official character, should contain some reference to the complaints alleged against him. It was difficult to frame a resolution in such terms as fully met the views of all parties and harmonized the Conference. A good deal of time was

May 22 .- I left my letter unfinished on vesterday, hoping to give you the final action in the case before the Conference. But now, at the close of another day's labor, the Conference seems to be no nearer a conclusion than at the time of the adjournment on yesterday evening. The difficulty is not in passing the Bishop's character, but in agreeing upon what shall be done with him for the future. The greatest affection is expressed on all bands for the Bishop; the most unbounded confidence in his purity of motive, and an unavowed declaration that there is no intention to afflict bim; but still it is thought that, in view of his advanced age, and the dissatisfaction which has arisen from his administration, no work should be assigned to him for the future. The Bishop suffered himself in a noble, dignified manner, before the Conference. His warm personal friends sympathize with him deeply. It is hoped that a conclusion will be reached that will relieve the Beshop, who has labored so long and so faithfully for the Church, and that the clouds now around him will clear away, and his sun at last go down amid the splendors of a burnished sky .- Peters. FAUQUIER COUNTY -We learn that on Fri day last a servant woman belonging to Mr. R. C. Newby whilst attempting to milk a vicious cow met with a very serious accident. The cow from some cause or other, becoming exasperated, goaded her most severely. Her escape was most miraculous.

On the same day and in the same neighborhood, one of the workmen engaged in the at erection of one of the new houses in that part of the town, accidentally fell from the scuffolding of the third floor, receiving a severe injury to the head. Dr. B. S. Herndon rendered surgical assistance to both parties -We are glad to hear that they are both doing well and likely to recover.

The May term of our County Court has been in session since Monday, and has been engaged in the examination of witnesses in the case of the Commonwealth vs. Thomas Bell, charged with the murder of his wife .--Wm. H. Payne for the Commonwealth, and B. H. Shackelford and J. Catlett Gibsen for the prisoner. This case has excited considerable interest throughout the County. Late last evening the Court unmimously decided to send the prisoner on to the Saperior Court. Bail was refused .- Warrenton Flag.

In the United States Court in Richmond, on Wednesday, Judge Halyburton sentenced Thomas White second mate of the Bark Octavia, to nine months imprisonment in the City jail, three months on the first indictment, for cruelly beating Wm. Eanis, Antonia Treader, and S lomon Parsiey, and six months for maltreating Lucian Boison, a passenger, who, it will be remembered, jumped from the bark into the sea, and was drowned, in consequence of the extreme dread with which he regarded White. The prisoner pleaded guilty to both indictments, at the suggestion of his counsel.

The Riehmond South says :-- Yesterday evening a grievous accident befel a young lady residing in one of Mr. Clark's houses, in 25th street, between Broad and Marshall. She had been sitting on the steps leading up to the back perch, and, on ri-ing up to enter the house her garter got entangled in a pail or some other obstacle. While trying to get rid of it, she smumbled, and, fulling down only four steps, came on her extended hand-, at the same time striking her head against the pavement. Both arms were broken, and her head is very badly contused.

On Tuesday last, near Beaver Dam, Goochland county, Va., and affray occurred between Messrs. John N. Smith and Hartwell F.
